SCHEME OF EXAMINATION FOR B. Ed. (TWO YEARS)

- The courses in the prescribed syllabus for B. Ed. having 100 maximum marks are Theory courses, while the rest are Practical ones.
- A candidate should pass each Theory and Practical course separately. To pass a theory course, a candidate must obtain a minimum of 40% marks in it, with at least 35% in external and 50% in internal evaluation. To pass a practical course, a candidate must obtain a minimum of 50% marks in it, with at least 40% marks in external and 50% in internal evaluation. Internal and external marks obtained in a course will be shown separately in the mark sheet.
- To pass in B.Ed. program as a whole, the candidate must get an aggregate of 50% marks in both Theory and Practical components taken together.
- Theory and Practical percentages will be shown separately. Division will be awarded on the basis of aggregate marks in both Theory and Practical components taken together. First division will be given to those candidates who secure 60% marks and above in aggregate. Second division will be awarded to those who get at least 50% but less than 60% marks. Distinction will be awarded to those who get 75% marks and above in aggregate.
- Students wishing to appear in a particular semester examination must have appeared in all previous semester examinations.
- In case of Absence in Semester exam of a course or Failure, a candidate will be allowed to carry any two courses of a semester. That is, he/she will be Allowed to Keep Term (ATKT) even though he/she has failed in/absented from semester exam of two courses. If a candidate fails in or remains absent from more than two courses of a semester the entire semester will have to be repeated. The examination of a Carry course will be held as and when it is offered in the subsequent semester. To pass a Carry course a candidate will get one chance only.
